CHINA, JAPAN REJECT ARMISTICE

BOTH BLAST LEAGUE HOPES BY REFUSING TO CONSIDER PEACE

Japanese Lay Down Conditions For Investigation

QUAI D'ORSAY, Paris, Nov. 21.—Hopes of the League of Nations council that an armistice could be arranged in Manchuria were blasted today when it was learned that both Japan and China will reject the proposal.

So certain were League officials that hostilities could be ended in Manchuria pending the dispatching of a commission of inquiry to Manchuria and China that an announcement was made of an armistice agreement, to be quickly followed by denials on the part of both the Japanese and Chinese delegations.

With respect to the proposed investigation by a League commission, including a representative of the United States, there appeared to be more likelihood of a Sino-Japanese agreement, but both Alfred Sze and Kenkichi Yoshizawa have

JAP CONDITIONS

TOKYO, Nov. 21.—The Japanese government today laid down three conditions under which it will accept a League of Nations investigation of the Manchurian situation.

- They are:
1. The inquiry must include China proper as well as Manchuria.
 2. The commission must not examine or interfere with Japanese military activities.
 3. There must be no interference with Japan's efforts to negotiate directly with China.

declined to commit themselves until they are informed of the scope and purpose of the inquiry which the League has in mind.

It is understood that the League's plan, gathered by Foreign Minister Aristide Briand of France, has been stated thus far only in vague terms to the Chinese and Japanese delegates, and has not been put in writing.

A plenary session of the council for public discussion of the plan had been scheduled for this afternoon, but in view of the new deadlock which has arisen there was a feeling this morning among some members of the council that it would be wiser to postpone the public meeting until next week.

The League prestige, it was pointed out, already at a low ebb as a result of its past failure to relieve the crisis in the far East, would suffer still further if it could obtain nothing better than a joint Sino-Japanese rejection of the only scheme it has been able to formulate to end the Manchurian conflict.

Both the Chinese and Japanese delegations, on the other hand, were eager for an open meeting, declaring that nothing was being gained from the secret sessions, and demanding an opportunity to express the views of their governments.

On behalf of the Nanking government, Dr. Sze still wants the United States and the other signatories of the Chinese territorial integrity treaty of 1922 to invoke that pact against Japan, and continues today to stand on his refusal to agree to a preliminary League inquiry unless the withdrawal of Japanese troops from Manchuria took place prior to or concurrently with the investigation.

The Chinese thus adhered to the same stand which they took when the League first tackled the Manchurian problem after the Japanese occupation of Mukden more than two months ago.

This holds good for Japan, as it

POLICE GUARD WALL STREET

Threats Of Bombing Alarm Section

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Wall Street resembled an armed camp today, extra squads of police, detectives and other armed guards patrolling the financial district where prominent bankers received threats of bombing.

Police Commissioner Mulrooney ordered special night and day squads on duty, when it was learned J. P. Morgan and Company, The New York Stock exchange officials, the Bankers Trust Company and the Manufacturers' Trust Company received menacing letters.

The department of justice assigned special agents to the area where plotters boasted they would wreck havoc.

Police said the threatening letters were signed "Communist"

TWENTY FOUR MINERS KILLED BY BLAST; 29 OTHERS ARE INJURED

Wounded Men Trapped Half Mile Beneath Surface In English Coal Shaft; Fire Hampers Work Of Rescuers

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Twenty-four men were killed and twenty-nine were injured today by an explosion, followed by fire, in one of the pits of the Bentley coal mine near Doncaster, Yorkshire.

The injured men were trapped half a mile beneath the surface.

The fire and the danger of further gas explosions hampered rescue efforts, but firemen and expert rescue crews were endeavoring to reach the entombed men.

There were pitiful scenes at the pithead, as scores of wives, children and other relatives of the victims waited to claim the bodies of the dead, and sought to learn the identity of the other men in the pit.

INGALLS AND COOPER MAKE BIDS FOR WOMEN'S VOTES AT MEETING

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—David S. Ingalls, who has already announced his candidacy for governor, and Myers Y. Cooper, who is expected to do so at any time, were launched today upon a colorful fight for the votes of Ohio Republican women.

They started their contest in a remarkable appropriate setting—

GRADUAL BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT SEEN AS SALES INCREASE

Christmas Buying Is Started Earlier To Get Bargains

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Some salient indicators of gradual improvement in the country's business situation were reflected in official reports made public during the past week.

Officials today called attention to the following favorable reports:

(1) Money circulation for the second successive week declined and at $5,471,000,000 was less than a billion dollars more than a year ago, indicating possibly a slight reduction in money hoarding.

(2) Another increase in the gold stocks brought the total to $4,370,000,000 more than $200,000,000 in excess of monetary reserves in 1928 at the end of the outward movement in that year.

(3) Actual and potential excess reserves of the federal reserve banks estimated at $1,500,000,000 clearly contradicting any claims that the country will be off the gold standard.

(4) Department of commerce reports showing substantial improvement in a number of large foreign markets for American goods with several cities of this country reporting better business prospects.

Indications reaching government agencies showed that there has been a general tendency to earlier than usual Christmas shopping because of the remarkable bargains offered in the retail stores. Many are taking advantage of this situation anticipating a rise in prices in December.

The Christmas rush while sales will not reach the normal dollar volume, will be heavy and as a result there will be a large dollar turnover and some additional employment up to Christmas. Retail shops in many cities are extending additional credit so that goods purchased in November may be paid for in January.

The volume of charitable work through community chests, fraternal, religious, patriotic, labor and other organizations probably will reach a new high record during the holiday season in an effort to bring some degree of cheer to the enormous number of impoverished unemployed.

WINTER MOVES ON MID-WEST

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—From his domain in the Canadian wilds the frost king was swooping down on the middle west today. Chicago and many sections of the central states were anticipating the year's first snowfall before sunset this evening, definitely terminating a wave of abnormal autumn warmth.

The government weather bureau predicted a fall in temperature down to fifteen degrees this afternoon. A blizzard is sweeping in from south-west Canada. Many sections of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast states have already been visited by heavy snowfall and severe cold.

SEES PARENTS DIE

Russell Scheidigger, Jr., above, 12-year-old youth of Dennison, O., saw his father and mother shot down in cold blood as they were returning from a motion picture theater in Dennison. Thomas Wheeler, a railroad brakeman, who later took his own life when surrounded by a posse of citizens, killed Russell Scheidigger and his wife because the latter had spurned Wheeler's pleas to elope, the boy told police.

NEW YORK DEMOCRAT LAUNCHES FIGHT TO BECOME PARTY HEAD

First To Announce Position Now Held By Garner

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Rep. John J. O'Connor today assumed the lead in the campaign for Democratic leadership of the house in the next congress.

Disclosure that the New Yorker has received strong backing of eastern Democrats and offers of support from the west and south admittedly gave him a fast start in what promises to be a stiff contest.

The first member of the house to formally announce his candidacy, O'Connor will be opposed by Reps. Rainey of Illinois, McDuffie of Alabama, Rankin of Mississippi and perhaps other candidates.

As the house organization fight warmed up it became apparent that Democratic hopes for success in the 1932 presidential campaign would be a powerful factor as well as the legislative program to be adopted by the party.

Aroused by Republican taunts that most of the powerful committees of the house will be headed by southern Democrats under the seniority rule, northern and western Democrats are determined to select the party floor leader and whip.

Although denying that national politics is involved in the party leadership fight, O'Connor said many Democrats offered their support on the ground that it would be policy for the party to give the north a "break."

"There is no threat upon the part of anyone," said O'Connor. "I do feel that the party leadership ought to go to the north. If the Democratic party is to win the national election it must have the support of the north. If you count Missouri and Kentucky as border states, there are more northern than southern Democrats in the house."

"Individuals don't count in the organization of the house. The good of the party must be considered."

O'Connor said that the New York delegation of twenty-three would support him, and that he had received offers of support from members in New England, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and some southern states.

Rep. Henry Rainey of Illinois apparently will fight it out with O'Connor if the Democrats decide to give the party leadership to the north. Rainey is a veteran of many hard Democratic battles. Some of his friends express doubt whether his age would permit him to undertake the rigorous work of leader, however.

OHIO MAYOR FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

OTTAWA, O., Nov. 21.—Dale Wayne Nottlinger today resumed his duties as mayor of Continental, near here, free of charges of second degree murder, in connection with the death of Alex Krueger, 21, of Cloverdale, who was fatally shot in a traffic argument in Continental in July 1930.

REPORT COMMUNITY CHEST STILL LACKS HALF OF SUM ASKED

Friday Contributions Largest Received In Any One Day

Xenians poured an additional $1,265 in pledges and cash into the Community Chest Friday.

This, the largest sum contributed in one day, brought the total collections Friday night to $4,485.75, Chairman T. H. Zell reported.

While there were several large contributions in Friday's collections, more of the larger sums expected remain to be reported, and it was hoped that Saturday night would show the chest a long way toward being filled with its $12,000 goal.

Friday it was reported that a territory that never before gave anything to the chest may be one of the districts to fill its quota. "This is the side of the solicitor's work that lends encouragement to the drive," said Chairman Zell. "It shows a popular appreciation that the condition of the times demands a giving to the full extent of the ability of all who are able to contribute."

The "widow's mite," repeated over and over again, will soon amount to a substantial sum," he said.

"Another interesting feature of this year's chest work, is the amount of cash that is being turned in by solicitors," said the chairman. "Of yesterday's large return, more than 80 per cent was in cash."

Contributions Friday included $25 from the White Baking Co.; $5 from the Busy Twelve Sewing Club, and $57.02 from the Junior Chest drive, which is incomplete. The following firms were added to the "100 percent club" Friday: The Peoples Building and Savings Co., The Bijou and Orpheum Theatre staffs and Karmelkorn.

Workers are instructed to report promptly on collections and subscriptions each day. Pink cards should be sent into Chest headquarters immediately so that names of contributors may be transferred to the proper solicitors before the week closes, it is pointed out.

Headquarters learned that a neighbor reported a worthy family in her vicinity had been neglected by charitable agencies. An investigation disclosed that the family has been taken care of for more than six weeks, a physician having been in the home for repeated visits, and groceries and other necessities provided. The public welfare nurse has been on the job, and the breadwinner is convalescing and about able to get on his feet.

SON ARRESTED IN DEATH OF WOMAN

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 21.—Arrested unexpectedly while attending his mother's funeral services, Homer Lawrence, 25, said to be a son of Mrs. Willie Dickey 57, formerly of Athens, Ga., society matron, today was being held by police here as a suspect in the fatal clubbing of the woman.

Mrs. Dickey was beaten into unconsciousness last Saturday night and died Wednesday from a fractured skull without ever regaining consciousness. She was the third victim in less than a week of what police then believed to be the work of a maniac clubber.

Merton Goodrich, a former inmate of the Lima State Hospital for the insane, has confessed, according to police, to one of the other two attacks. All suspicion that he was connected with Mrs. Dickey's brutal murder has been abandoned, police said.

CAME THE CHILLY DAWN!

Wittenberg Freshies, Being Hazed, Paddle Through Rain In B. V. D.'s

STRIPPED to their B. V. D.'s and their shoes and socks, two Wittenberg College freshmen shivered their chilly way through an autumn drizzle in the dark just before dawn today as they paddled down the Jameson Pike near the outskirts of the city at 5 o'clock Saturday morning.

Abandoned by upper classmen, near Jamestown, as near as the victims could estimate, at sometime after midnight as the climax of several hours of hazing, the two said they had walked about ten miles when Sheriff John Baughn, Deputy Sheriff J. B. Newsome and Patrolman George Robinson picked them up.

Soaked to the skin and thoroughly chilled the pair was glad of a gas fire at police headquarters.

HER SON DOOMED "TO GO NEXT"

In set is Robert Mason, her 22-year-old son, who was "to go next," to poisoning her husband and daughter to collect $1,000 insurance money on each of them.

MAN BELIEVED FATALLY SHOT DURING HOLDUP

Think Victim Had Attempted To Rob Man With Gun

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21.—Shot in the stomach, a man identified as Walter Thurman, 33, who is believed by police to have suffered a fatal wound in an attempted holdup of another man, died in St. Luke's Hospital here today.

The man was shot, according to authorities, in a scuffle under a bridge in a residential district. His assailant vanished. Three shots were heard by passersby.

Thurman staggered into an east side restaurant near the scene of the shooting, and groaned: "I'm shot. I'm going to die."

The man collapsed and was taken to the hospital where police were unable to obtain any account of the shooting from him before he died.

Investigating the scene of the shooting, police found three empty revolver shells, a man's glove and some keys.

Police Lieutenant Bernard Jermain, who headed the police squad sent to probe the shooting, stated that he was convinced the man was slain in an attempt to hold up another man, but had selected a victim who possessed a gun.

GOVERNOR WHITE TO RETURN TO OFFICE

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—After being confined to the executive mansion for nearly a month, recovering from injuries suffered in an automobile accident at Findlay, Governor George White will return to his office at the state house Monday, Secretary Carl W. Smith announced today.

The governor is not yet fully recovered from the fractured collar bone which he suffered when his automobile plunged into a ditch, however, Smith said.

Still wearing a brace, and not over the shock of the accident, the governor will not be able to immediately go back to his old heavy routine, Smith said.

ROBBERS POSING AS FEDERAL OFFICERS LOOT COUNTRY HOME

Silver, Household Goods Worth $900 Stolen Friday Night

Torturing two elderly men in the house and threatening them with death, five robbers who represented themselves as federal prohibition officers looted the country home of Charles Monnett near Hyde Crossroads a mile and a half south of Yellow Springs, of silverware, household goods and clothing worth $900 early Friday night.

Terrified, the two men, "Doc" Thomas and Douglas Osborn, farm laborers, the former having only one arm, remained in the house until Saturday morning before giving the alarm.

Deputy Sheriff L. A. Davis said the loot included antiques that were heirlooms in the Monnett family, indicating that the robbers understood the value of such articles. A woven bedspread 150 years old, two sets of old dishes, two old vases for which the owner had refused $50 each, two sets of plated flat silverware, silk bedspreads, household linens, three gold watches, three shot guns, silk underwear and men's clothing were among the stolen articles.

The robbers even carried away a feather bed tick, evidently in the search for money which they thought might be hidden in it.

The two men were alone in the house when the robbers appeared, members of the Monnett family who spend part of their time at the farm, having gone to their home in Springfield for the night. One bandit remained in the automobile, while four armed with guns and flashing badges, covered Thomas, who opened the door to their knock. To their assertion that they were officers, and intended to search the house for an illicit still, Thomas replied there was no still in the house.

"Take off his shoes and burn his feet, maybe he will tell us then," said one robber. While preparations were being made to take off Thomas' shoes, one robber struck him in the head with his gun, rendering him unconscious. Two of them then seized Osborn and dragged him about the house, demanding that he tell them where the money was hidden. He protested that he had no knowledge of money or other valuables. They dragged Osborn upstairs and even into the cellar, while at the same time their companions were looting the house and carrying the stolen goods to the automobile.

The men estimated that the robbers were in the house two hours, or they threatened to kill the two men with death if they gave the alarm and their threat.

Part of the stolen goods was the property of a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monnett, Mrs. Reuben Copenhaver. The Copenhaver's conduct a filling station on an adjoining farm also belonging to the Monnetts and fronting on the Springfield Pike, and live in a smaller house there. Some of their goods had been stored at the farm house.

A meager description of the robbers was furnished by the elderly men. They were all young and well dressed, they said.

The men who were victims of the robbers' assault were not seriously hurt.

A search for the robbers was instituted Saturday by Sheriff John Baughn.

PRESIDENT DOUMER'S DOUBLE

PARIS.—The president of the republic, Monsieur Paul Doumer, recently has found his double in the very lively person of M. Delaite, of Ville d'Avray. He is 80 years old, seven years the president's senior, and he believes that he has the original features and Monsieur Doumer the duplicates inasmuch as he saw the world first. His friends and acquaintances all call him "Monsieur Paul," so striking is his resemblance to the French chief executive.

RELICS STOLEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Theft of priceless heirlooms of the nation and the old South, table china and silver once owned by George Washington and later handed down through the family of General Robert E. Lee, was revealed by police here today.

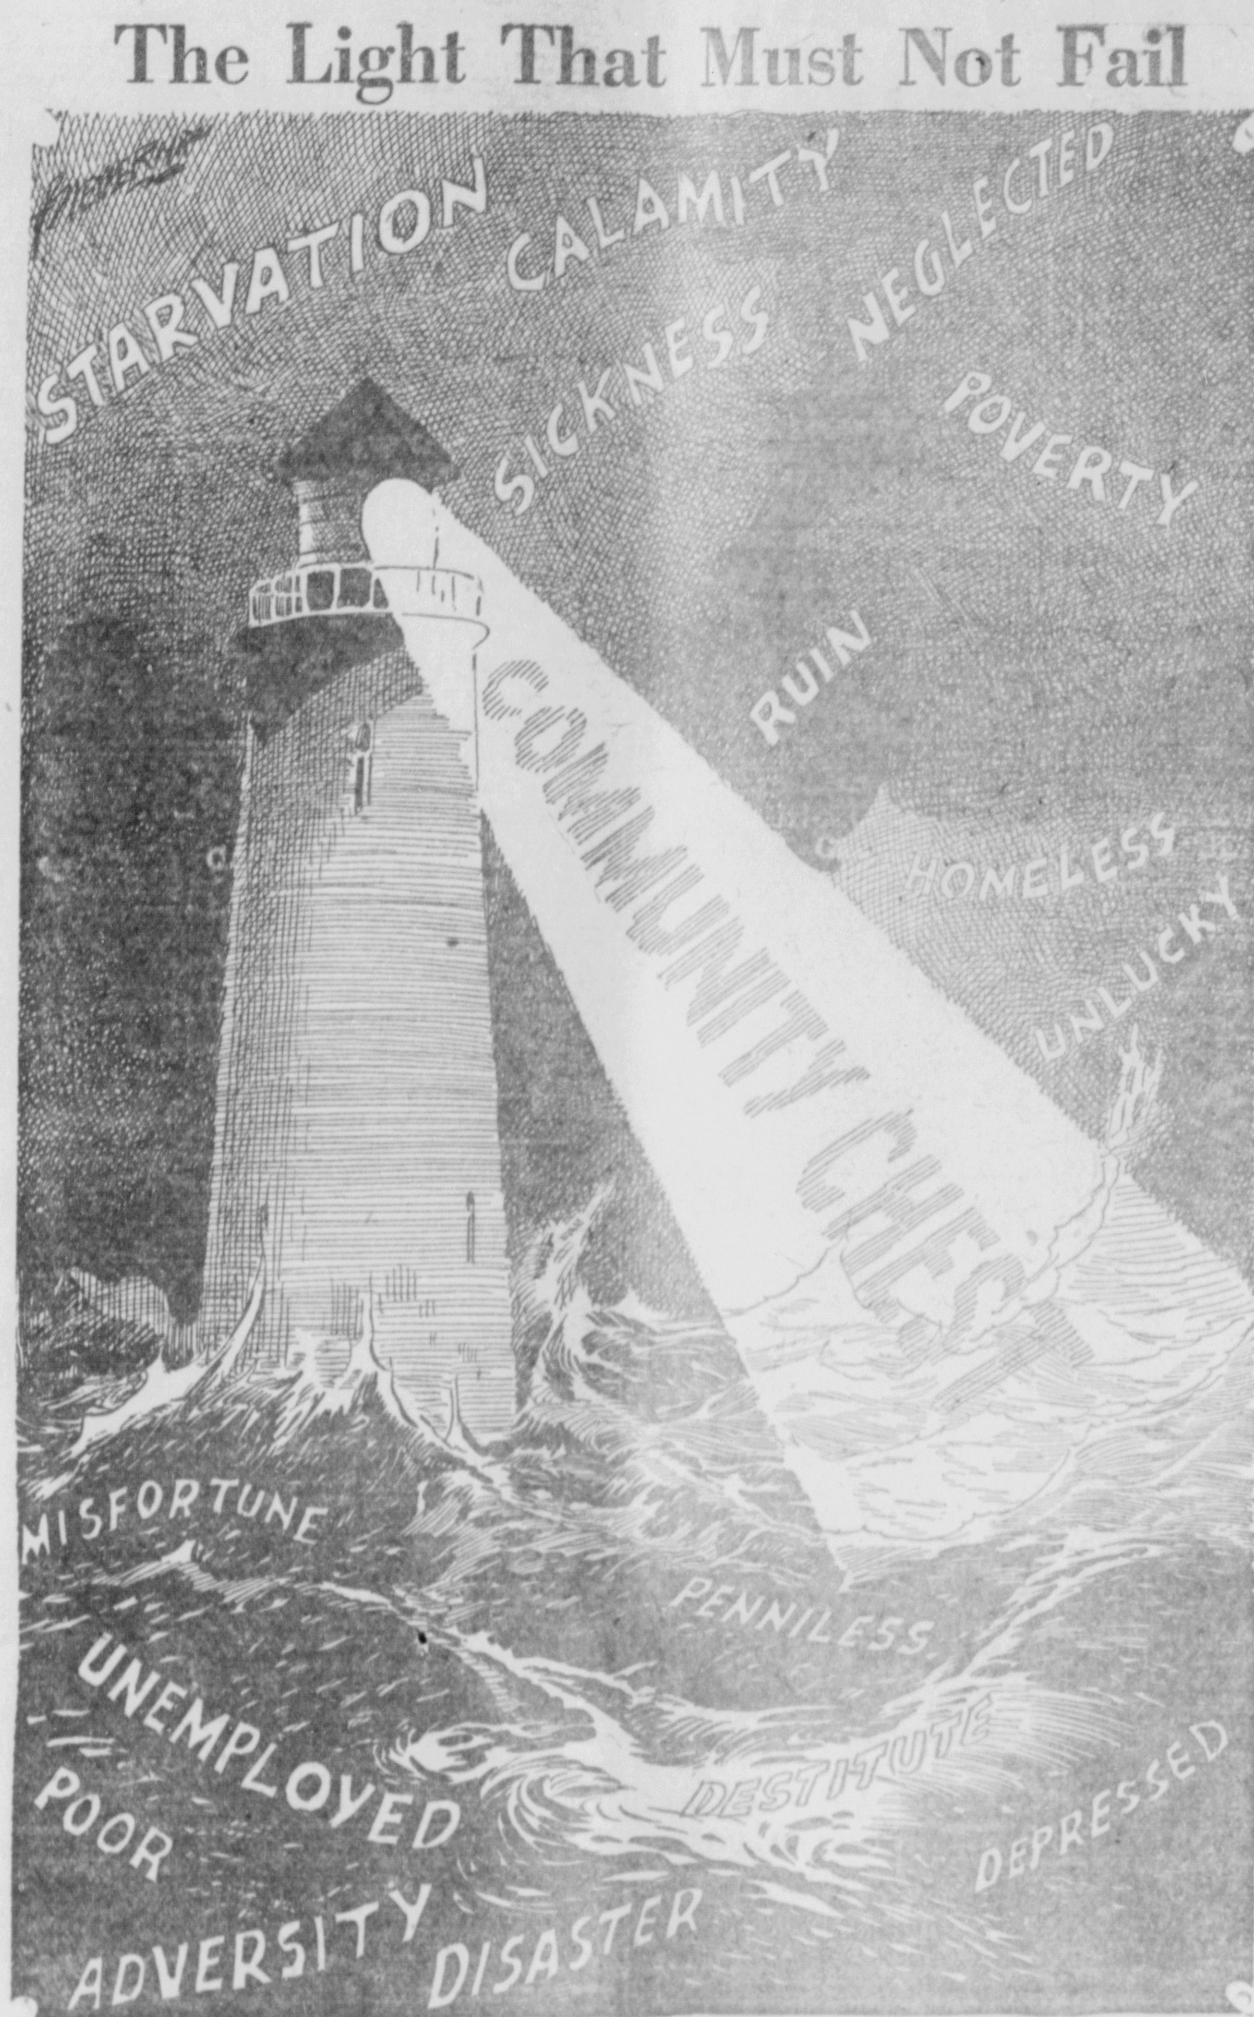

The valuables were taken from the Wyoming Ave. home of Mrs. Robert E. Lee. The theft was discovered some time after Mrs. Lee returned from abroad, police said, and a diligent search has revealed no clue to the bandits. So cleverly did they work that police have not been able to ascertain how entrance to the Lee home was effected.

The stolen articles, police announced, are five port glasses, four claret glasses, three finger bowls, one salt cellar, one pepper cruet and one moustache or soft sugar container. They were valued at approximately $10,000.

JUVENILE MUSIC CLUB IS FORMED FRIDAY

Forty-six enthusiastic young music students met for the first time Friday afternoon at Trinity Church in the primary room. The Juvenile Music Club is sponsored by the Xenia Women's Music Club with Miss Marjorie Street as counselor and Mrs. Karl Babb and Mrs. John Barlow as assistants.

All children between the ages of six to twelve years inclusive who are studying music or elocution are eligible for membership. The club this year will study the instruments of the symphony orchestra beginning with the string family of which the violin is the first to be discussed. Mrs. Babb talked to the children briefly in regard to the different sections of an orchestra. The club is planning to federate immediately thus making each child in the club a member of both the state and national federation of music clubs. The club members will be divided into groups, each group being responsible for each meeting so that each member will have equal opportunity in performing.

The plan for the December meeting which is to be in the form of a Christmas party will be announced later. The committee communicating with the music teachers of the city and county.

An interesting musical program was presented by a group of the members, mostly pianists, in a very smooth manner.

Bares Betrayal

Horace Allen (above), father of Edward H. B. Allen, who shot and killed Francis A. Donaldson, 3rd, in a quarrel over young Allen's sister, Rose, has accused the dead youth of betraying his daughter. The elder Allen also declared in a prepared statement that the Donaldson family had refused to let their son marry Rose, the girl of his affections. Both families are prominent socially in Philadelphia.

MASONRY CAN HELP PROBLEMS OF TIMES MINISTER REVEALS

"Masonry as a group of men can contribute three things to help in the problems of today," the Rev. W. P. Harriman, pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church, Dayton, told members of the Greene County Masonic Club at their dinner meeting at the Masonic Temple Friday evening.

Dr. Harriman's subject was "The Three-Fold Contribution of Masonry to the Solution of Today's Problems." First, in the problem of crime and law enforcement, Masons can do their part by showing a better spirit toward law enforcement, he said. In the problem of financial depression Masons are to observe the "Golden Rule" and third, Masons are to have faith in both religious and otherwise, he said.

In a short talk Virgil G. Martin urged the club to support the reorganization of the National Guard here and W. W. Galloway, chairman of the Greene County Chapter, American Red Cross, talked on that organization. Fred Coy, president of the club, presided in the absence of Judge S. C. Wright, Cedarville, who was to have been toastmaster but was unable to attend due to illness. Dr. Harriman was introduced by the Rev. W. H. Tilford.

More than 100 members of the club enjoyed a steak dinner served by Jacob Kany preceding the program.

ARTILLERY CHIEF REPORTS NEED FOR RADIO IN BATTLES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Increasing use of the radio for field artillery communications in time of war was forecast today in the annual report of Major General H. G. Bishop, chief of field artillery of the U. S. Army.

The increasing difficulties of maintaining wire lines on the battlefield must force an ever-widening use of radio for communication with the various batteries in time of battle, the report said.

This necessity requires more radio training for field artillery personnel in peace time, the report stated.

Excellent partial results were target practice during the past year. The field artillery has long practiced at moving targets, but hitherto has complained that the target did not approximate in speed to what may be expected on a modern battlefield. In response to this criticism, a new target has been devised, with a speed up to forty-five miles per hour. A method of attacking this speedy target when invisible from the gun positions is being worked out and shortly will be promulgated to the service.

Development of anti-aircraft machine-gun mounts also is being continued, the report said. There is now every reason to believe that a satisfactory carriage mount will soon be produced. In the meantime, tests have been and are still being conducted with the Browning 30-calibre automatic rifle as an anti-aircraft weapon. The 50-calibre machine-gun has been eliminated from consideration for anti-aircraft use for field artillery, due to the superiority of the 30-calibre weapon, the report stated.

A petition in error was taken by Bradstreet directly to the Court of Appeals. In the opinion, rendered by Judge Allread and concurred in by Judges Kunkle and Hornbeck, the higher court found no prejudicial error in the trial of the case or in the judge's charge, and held that the verdict and judgment are supported by the substantial justice of the case and are in accordance with law.

Unearthing what is now ancient history, it may still not be generally known that Ray Henley, sensational four-year-old pacer, raced by Trainer Joe Hagler, Xenia, for his father, now sports a faster record than his sire, Peter Henley.

He accomplished the feat, we are informed, in his second start at the Lexington, Ky. track by winning the first heat of the 2:14 race in the official time of 2:14, clipping three-fourths of a second off his previous mark. Ray's individual time for the mile was 2:00 1/2 with the last half in fifty-eight seconds. Yet Ray had to be satisfied with third money.

Ray still shades his half-brother, Peter Nutonia, owned by H. H. Arbogast, of Bellefontaine, in the stable of Spec Erskine, Dayton, renege, who cut his record to 2:02 1/2 in winning the 2:10 pace at Lexington.

Ray Henley, in the opinion of E. L. Churchill, veteran racing scribe, "stands head and shoulders above any pacer campaigned by an Ohio horseman in 1931, winning races on both the mile and the half-mile tracks, and the fact that he won nine races as a three-year-old in 1930, his each and every start on a two-pace course makes him the best pacer paraded before the public the past two racing years." Churchill continues in this vein as follows:

"We may be over-enthusiastic about the pacer but that is no more than natural, as he is a real race horse, always on the pace, good any time you take him to the track, absolutely unhurt by the two hard campaigns he has had, and he must be conceded the 'Single G.' of tomorrow."

Since they have frequently gone through almost an entire season by making a single substitution, Cornell and Michigan State are being hailed as two of the outstanding "iron man" combinations of the football season. Brown used to have this title a few years ago when Kiefer, one-time Dayton Steele High star, was an All-American in the backfield.

Critics out West insist that "Jumping Joe" Savoldi, former Notre Dame backfield flash, has been making such a success on the mat he will be in line for the world's championship in a year or two.

In dire need of stables for a couple of his horses, Harry Raymond, North Carolina sportsman, wrote George Finley, New York, who knows Primo Carnera well indeed, and asked if George couldn't influence the Vamoosing Venetian to donate a pair of shoes. Finley communicated with Leon See, the economical manager, and in due course of time, See reported back to Finley:

"Primo, he has got only two pairs of shoes and I look at 'em and oo la la, I see zee zee good for another six months. Please tell Mons. Raymond that zee zee months from now when Primo has got zee complete value of zee leather Mons. Raymond will get zee shoes."

EAST HIGH TACKLES ALUMNI ON MONDAY

Revising an old, but in recent years, somewhat neglected custom, the undefeated East High School football eleven will clash with an Alumni team in a night game at Cox Athletic Field Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Alumni team will be sponsored by former East High gridiron stars of 1929 and 1930, including Rice, Baldwin and Green at ends, Morgan Jennings and Ross at tackles, J. Smith, Parker and Baker at guards, Carter at center, G. Smith and Pettiford at halfbacks and C. Smith and Garrett at fullbacks.

Unusual interest is being generated for this contest because East gridgers fear their record of never having been beaten or scored upon during the last two seasons may be spoiled by the strong combination that will represent the Alumni.

There Is No Joy In Sidney; Xenia Wins 13-6

BUCCANEERS OUTPLAY ENEMY TO CAPTURE FIRST LEAGUE GAME

Victory—Starved Central High Displays Fine Football To Surprise And Overwhelm Sidney; Straight Football Yields Win

By PHIL FRAME

ND it came to pass that those starving Xenia Central High footballers, their appetites not entirely satisfied but merely whetted by their return to winning form a week ago, further appeased the gnawing pangs of hunger Friday afternoon on—of all teams—Sidney High, a particularly delectable morsel of food served hot on the Cox Field gridiron.

After that short flight into rhetoric, it is difficult to come down to terra firma again and, without further ceremonies, make a clean breast of the fact that a rejuvenated Buccaneer football team, looking more like a million dollars than the currency itself, crushed Sidney, 13-6. The victory accomplished several important things. For example, it was Xenia's first Miami Valley League triumph this season. Secondly, it marked the first time the Bucs have walked off a football field with a victory. Third—the stunning blow dealt Sidney's eleven, a team that had been deprived of its chance to tie for the league title. All this is quite a feat for one afternoon's work.

It was generally supposed the game with Sidney was to be exclusively a Sidney affair. Buccaneer fans had shaken their heads dolefully. Central was going to look very silly before the contest had ended.

But Xenia upset all that had been predicted by refusing to fall apart. A long dormant power, partly aroused from its slumber by the Home cadets last week, rubbed its eyes, yawned, stretched and awakened entirely against the perhaps too confident Yellow Jackets.

Who had supposed the actual playing of the game to be nothing more than a formality.

Emerging from the comparative obscurity to which players on the line of scrimmage are usually doomed, Xenia's line, heavily outweighed as usual, gave an account of itself that will not soon be forgotten. How efficiently the aggressive Buccaneer line, fighting every inch of the way, completely bottled up Sidney's vaunted running attack is best illustrated by the fact the Railroaders accumulated a pitiful fifty-two yards from scrimmage, this total yardage including a twenty-four yard dash by Quarterback Bonham. Sidney's most elusive ball carrier.

In contrast, Xenia's backfield, running behind the fast charging line, earned 186 yards from scrimmage, of which the hard plunging Freddie Dalton, carrying the ball twenty-six times, contributed ninety-seven.

An amazing running attack, coupled with an ability to capitalize on "breaks," brought the Bucs touchdowns in the second and third periods, while Sidney's running game "hunted, took to the air to tally its consolation marker in the fourth quarter.

Xenia menaced the visitor's goal line twice in the first stanza, giving some slight hint of what was to come. A brilliant twenty-yard run by Paul Baldwin put the Bucs in scoring position soon after the game began but the ball was lost on downs on Sidney's twenty-one. Shortly thereafter, Xenia blocked a kick and Lighthizer covered the ball on Sidney's twenty-four. But the time was not yet ripe and after the Bucs had recorded a first down on line thrusts by Dalton and Thompson, Sidney again took the ball on downs on its own ten.

But this Xenia team was persistent and the second quarter had hardly begun when the Bucs initiated and then maintained a relentless drive sixty yards down the field for their first score. Taking turns at lugging the ball, Baldwin, Thompson, Dalton and Huston plunged down the field for four consecutive first downs, the advance embracing a sixteen-yard dash by Dalton. Reaching the two-yard mark, Dalton lunged over the goal line, then converted the extra point on one of his famous drop-kicks.

Butterfingers handling of the ball by Sidney backs may be held indirectly accountable for Xenia's second touchdown six minutes after the second half began. Thompson first covered a fumble on Sidney's twenty-seven, then Sidney, in turn, recovered a fumble by Dalton, on the seventeen. Now it was up to Sidney to fumble, it being a sort of game, and once more the alert Thompson was on hand to recover for Xenia on Sidney's sixteen. This time the Bucs refused to be a party any longer to this fumbling business. Off tackle thrusts earned a first down four yards from the goal, and after Freddie had been stopped with one-yard gains on two attempts, Howard Thompson buried himself over the last white line. Freddie's drop kick was a trifle wide for point.

Made desperate by the ease with which Xenia was winning, Sidney changed tactics during the rest of the game and began tossing passes. Too late Sidney discovered Xenia's only weakness was an inadequate pass defense.

Completing five out of twelve aerial attempts for a total gain of 142 yards, Sidney gave the Bucs some anxious moments before the contest ended. Late in the third period Clark, sub halfback, heaved a thirty-eight-yard pass to Schlagetter, end, who, with no player between him and the goal, slipped and fell on Xenia's twenty-one. Then a seven-yard aerial was ruled complete because of interference, giving Sidney a first down on the Xenia fifteen.

Comely muffed a pass in the end zone and the ball changed hands. Early in the last period Clark passed forty-seven yards to the troublesome Schlagetter, who then fumbled it on the goal line and Smith recovered for the Bucs a yard in front of the goal. Thompson got away a nice punt of thirty-five yards against the wind.

Another pass to Schlagetter for nineteen yards that was ruled

AVENGE EARLY LOSS IN RETURN CONTEST FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Irons And Rutan Lead Yellow Jackets To 12-6 Win

Cedarville College gridgers, smarting from a last-period defeat suffered at the hands of Urbana Junior College at Cox Field recently, turned the tables on the Champaign County eleven in the season's finale at Urbana Friday afternoon to win 12 to 6.

The potential strength of the Yellow Jackets apparent in earlier games this season but lacking in the shadow of the goal posts, made itself felt during the afternoon. The Borstmen exhibited a strong running attack with Rutan and Irons as the spearhead of the drive, to score touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters.

Urbana scored its lone marker near the end of the fourth period in a desperate overhead attack. Donohoe recovered Rutan's fumble on the Cedarville 26-yard line and Kerns passed seventeen yards to Hitt, who scampered eighteen yards for the counter.

The score does not accurately indicate Cedarville's margin of superiority since once touchdown was ruled void because of a penalty. It happened in the second quarter when Brokaw passed fifteen yards to Morrison, end, for a score that was cancelled because the backfield was in motion.

Irons scored first for Cedarville culminating a fifty-three yard drive after intercepting an Urbana pass in midfield. The second tally was hung up in the fourth period after the Yellow Jackets recovered the leather on downs on their own forty-five yard and marched to the Urbana three-yard line. Two dashes of eleven and fifteen yards by Rutan aided the advance and Rutan then scored on an end run. Cedarville missed another touchdown at the beginning of the second half which failed almost on the goal line after a drive from Cedarville's thirty-seven yard line right after the kickoff. All attempts to convert after touchdowns failed.

Urbana was handicapped because four stars, McDaniel, quarterback, Eggleston, end, and Driver and Kraft, lineemen, were declared ineligible. Later Denny Brown, captain and guard, was forced to leave the game because of a knee injury. Lineups:

FOOTBALL SIDELINE STORIES

IT WAS the first game of the season, played between two colored schools in the south. There was one boy who knew little about football, but he had, badgered the coach for a chance to try his hand at the sport though he had never handled a football before that season. The chap was rather dense about even the rudiments of the game, but was fascinated by names of the various positions—quarterback, halfbacks, fullbacks and so on.

Late in the game, with the contest safely won, the coach sent in the eager youth to replace an end. On the first play the youth picked up a fumble and raced to his own goal line—scoring a safe touchdown for the opponents. The coach, frothing with rage, removed him. The youth came off the field grinning.

"Well," he said, "I guess I didn't do so good."

"Yeah!" roared the mentor, "let you play and that's the end of you as a football player!"

"Ah, gee, coach," pleaded the player, "I'mme have another chance. You played me at a wrong place. Next time," he said, gazing longingly at the crouching backs, "let me play one of them fractions!"

HOME CADETS DEFEAT OHIO DEAF SCHOOL IN LAST FOOTBALL GAME

Putting the finishing touches on a successful grid season, the O. S. and S. O. Home football eleven closed its schedule Friday afternoon by defeating Ohio Deaf School from Columbus, 13 to 7, on the Home gridiron.

The cadets won six games and lost only three out of nine played this fall.

After a scoreless first period, each team scored a touchdown and point after in the second quarter to remain deadlocked when the half ended. The cadets put over another marker in the third stanza to win.

The Ohio Deaf's touchdown came after a fifteen-yard penalty had driven the cadets back to their five-yard line. Trying to punt out of danger, Yowell's kick was blocked and recovered by the visitors over the goal line. The Columbus team was then awarded the extra point on a technicality.

Yowell and Wooten scored the Home touchdowns, both on short punts. After drives down the field, Badal added one extra point on a pounce, Yowell and Blair were outstanding for the Cadets on offense during the contest.

CANZONERI VICTOR OVER CHOCOLATE

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—Tony Canzoneri, lingers on today as lightweight champion of the world, but only because of dauntless courage, superlative stamina and the unquenchable fires of battle.

He gained a fifteen round decision—not unanimous and loudly booed as well as wildly cheered from Kid Chocolate last night after one of the most sensational slugger brawls seen in New York in many years.

Referee Willie Lewis and Judge Joe Angelo voted for Tony. Judge Charles F. Mathison cast for the Cuban Negro. The opinion was divided in the press box, but the verdict was almost a unit for Canzoneri, the majority giving him eight rounds, Chocolate four and the others even.

"Spy" Beats "Ride"

Mrs. Della Christie, of Cincinnati, who was a well-known prohibition "spy" before she committed suicide in a fashionable hotel of the Ohio City, is believed to have beaten her enemies to claiming her life. It was reported in the Cincinnati underworld that Mrs. Christie was slated for a "ride," and it is believed she preferred to die by her own hand.

Warren G. Harding, late President of the United States and former publisher of the Marion Star, John Brough, Ohio governor during the closing days of the Civil War and founder of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Charles Browne, famed humorist who began his writings under the pen name of "Artemus Ward" on the Cleveland Plain Dealer, were eulogized at the dinner and their names added to the roll of Ohio's Famed Journalists.

Three Newspaper Men Are Honored

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—Three names illustrious in the annals of journalism and public service were formally enrolled today on the scroll of the Ohio Journalism Hall of Fame following a dinner here last night attended by 150 newspaper men and women from all parts of the state.

Warren G. Harding, late President of the United States and former publisher of the Marion Star, John Brough, Ohio governor during the closing days of the Civil War and founder of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Charles Browne, famed humorist who began his writings under the pen name of "Artemus Ward" on the Cleveland Plain Dealer, were eulogized at the dinner and their names added to the roll of Ohio's Famed Journalists.

CITIES STRUGGLE TO RAISE QUOTAS

By International News Service
Ohio cities were making a last-minute spurt today in an effort to go over the top in their community fund campaigns.

Only two or three days of canvassing remained in most cities. Although the half-way mark had been reached in most places, even greater effort appeared to be necessary during the remainder of the drive to attain quotas.

Movie Fans Rise To Cheer—Good Films Coming Here

If your correspondent was permitted to see but one movie at Xenia theaters next week and was required to make a choice he would be nonplussed, to use a very effete word. If you get these theater managers to agree to a corner and pin them down you may force an admission that screens here have been rather barren in recent weeks. And that's one reason why the coming week's program look so good, perhaps.

It all starts off with "Seed", Universal's version of the Charles G. Norris novel of that name at the Orphum Sunday and Monday. Norris himself, praised Director John Stahl's interpretation of his celebrated story, which should be recommended enough. Universal dressed the theme with an all star cast. John Boles, Genevieve Tobin,

MOLLIE O'DAY

Lois Wilson and Raymond Hackett head this group of screen notables but others of acting renown who have parts include Bette Davis, Frances Dade, Zasu Pitts, Richard Tucker, and an excellent group of child performers, including Dickie Moore. This will be the attraction Monday when proceeds go to the community chest.

The Bijou opens its week with the Metro film "Just a Gigolo", with William Haines in the starring role and that new leading woman, Irene Purcell, opposite him. This film is also the charity attraction Monday when proceeds go to the chest. Haines will be seen in a sophisticated comedy, C. Aubrey Smith, Charlotte Granville, Lillian Bond, Albert Conti and Viola Davril are among others in the cast.

The Bijou program increases in interest through the week. "The Smiling Lieutenant", the Maurice Chevalier Paramount vehicle, is the attraction on Green St. Tuesday and Wednesday in one of the French star's best offerings to America. Claudette Colbert, Miriam Hopkins, Charlie Ruggles, head the splendid supporting cast.

This reviewer is partial to the Bijou offering of Thursday and Friday. It will be Fox's "Sob Sister" in which James Dunn, star of "Bad Girl" and Linda Watkins, have the leading roles. You guessed it—its a newspaper story and this department is told that it is very well done. Minna Gombell, who was with Dunn in "Bad Girl", Molly O'Day, Howard Phillips and others are in the film, which is made from Mildred Gilman's novel.

First National offers "The Bargain" at the Bijou Saturday. It is a film version of Philip Barry's prize play and is well cast with Lewis Stone, Evelyn Knapp, Charles Butterworth, Doris Kenyon, John Darrow, Oscar Apfel and Una Merkel in the leads.

The celebrated stage play, "Subway Express" by Eva Kay Flint and Martha Madison, a recent

TONG LEADER FREED BY GOVERNOR WHITE IN EXTORTION CASE

Served Part Of Ten-Year Term For Cleveland Offense

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—Chin Jack Lem, six years ago a leader of the Hip Sing tong of Cleveland's Chinatown, was outside the gray walls of Ohio Penitentiary today, his ten-year sentence for extortion commuted by Governor George White.

Chin will not return to the scenes of his former domain, however, for his freedom was granted on the condition he remain out of Cleveland and Cuyahoga County. It was reported here that he would go to Louisville to join a son there.

The signing of Chin's release was announced late yesterday at the governor's office. It was learned here today that two of the four members of the board of parole and Cuyahoga County officials had opposed a commutation for Chin. He would have been eligible for parole in January.

Chin was the last of six members of an alleged extortion gang operating in Cleveland to win freedom. He was sentenced for threatening to kill Wong Sing, member of an opposing tong, unless he would surrender a quit claim on a $70,000 piece of property in Cleveland.

A spectacular raid on Cleveland's Chinatown climaxed discovery of the plot and the trial which followed the arrest of the gang was marked by the colorful insertion of oriental formalities into the staid and dignified air of the courtroom.

TWO INJURED WHEN AUTO HITS TRUCK

Carl Polly, 40, and Lawrence Jenkins, 21, both colored, of London, suffered minor injuries in the collision of their small sedan with a parked truck in front of the plant of the Hagar Board and Paper Co., Cedarville at 12:15 Saturday morning.

Polly received a fractured rib, and both men were cut about their heads, faces and bodies. They were taken home after being treated by Drs. M. I. Marsh and Harold Ray in the office of the paper company.

Sheriff John Baughn and Deputy Sheriff L. A. Davis who investigated said that the sedan, driven by Polly, was travelling west at high speed, and skidded when it crossed the railroad switch leading into the paper plant, struck the truck and turned over on its side. The truck belonging to the Allen Poultry Co., Lexington, Ky., was driven by William L. Mattingly, Lexington, and was stopped for repairs. Mattingly was returning to Lexington after delivering a load of turkeys in Columbus.

ILLUSTRATED BIBLE LESSON

ACTS 25:1-12; 28:16-30—When the Roman governor Felix learned of Paul's benevolent mission to Jerusalem, bringing gifts of money for poor relief, he thought he saw the possibility of a bribe for Paul's release from the Caesarean prison. Felix sent for Paul often and communed with him. But within two years Felix was succeeded by Festus, who was just about to remand Paul to Jerusalem for trial when Paul, knowing the impossibility of a fair trial there, cut red tape by claiming his right as a Roman citizen to appeal to Caesar.

With characteristic Roman expediency, Paul soon was en route to Rome. It was to require three different ships and much of the seasons of fall, winter and spring to make the journey. Regardless, however, of hurricane, shipwreck and other opposing forces, Paul was assured a safe journey's end by the angel of God appearing to him in the storm. This confidence Paul communicated to fellow prisoners, passengers and crew as he virtually took command of the ship and directed in the rescue of all on board.

Paul in Rome

By the Rev. Alvin E. Bell
And Alfred J. Buescher

Having wintered on the island of Malta, where all were shipwrecked, Paul was brought to Rome attended by loving brethren, who joined his party from place to place along the line. He was shown every possible courtesy by the Roman centurions whose prisoner he was: "And when we entered Rome, Paul was suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him. And he abode two whole years in his own hired dwelling, and received all that went in unto him, preaching the Kingdom of God."

Paul invited his opponents to hear him. "And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the Kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the things that were spoken, and some believed not. And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed."
